Red Sand Trails

Last week our teacher took us to a great place—Red Sand Trails. A guide led us all around. First, we hiked to a canyon. We saw bobcats and cougars sleeping on the rocks. As we hiked back, we passed cactus, mesquite trees, and sagebrush. Frogs hopped in the grass and a snake slipped by! By the trail we saw a vet helping two sick foxes. Later, a ranger showed us some scorpions and other insects. We had fun in the desert!
