

17
The first part of the history of the
of the world

The first part of the history of the world is the history of the creation of the world and the life of the first man, Adam. It is the story of the beginning of all things, and of the fall of man from the state of innocence into the state of sin and death.

The second part of the history of the world is the history of the patriarchs, from Adam to Abraham. It is the story of the lives of these great men, and of the promises which God made to them, and which were fulfilled in the birth of Jesus Christ.

The third part of the history of the world is the history of the Jews, from the birth of Moses to the coming of Jesus Christ. It is the story of the people of Israel, and of the laws which God gave to them, and of the prophecies which were fulfilled in the life of Jesus.

The fourth part of the history of the world is the history of the Gentiles, from the time of the apostles to the present day. It is the story of the spread of the Christian religion, and of the lives of the great men of the church, and of the events which have shaped the world since the time of the apostles.

The fifth part of the history of the world is the history of the present age, from the time of the Reformation to the present day. It is the story of the great changes which have taken place in the world since the time of the Reformation, and of the lives of the great men of the church, and of the events which have shaped the world since the time of the Reformation.

The sixth part of the history of the world is the history of the future, from the time of the second coming of Jesus Christ to the end of the world. It is the story of the final judgment, and of the life of the saints in heaven, and of the life of the wicked in hell, and of the events which will shape the world in the future.