

VIII. Beauty, stand further

Beau - ty stand fur - ther, re - pine not at my bla - ming, Is it not mur - der, to Is it not bet - ter, to love thy friend in good sort Then to be debt - er for set my heart on fla - ming, Thus hope - less to take bare sight of such a kind-ness name to re - port? If you had the less for this rich mer-cie glo - ry doth tempt me to make my death be - get a sto - ry, Then lend-ing then should I con - fess no thrift were in such a spen-ding. Oh, pi - ty, pi - ty me, pi - ty, pi - ty me, pi - ty, pi - ty me lest some worse thing en - sue it, pi - ty, pi - ty me, pi - ty, pi - ty me, pi - ty, pi - ty me thine gaine shall be thine owne all

My death's true cause, my death's true cause, my death's true cause will I would but live I would but live, I would but live to force thy guilt to rue it. Then pi-ty, pi-ty me, pi-ty, pi-ty me make my vir - tues known all. Oh, pi-ty, pi-ty me, pi-ty, pi-ty me pi-ty, pi-ty me lest some worse thing en - sue it, My death's true pi-ty, pi-ty me, the gaine shall be thine owne all, I would but cause, my death's true cause, my death's true cause will force thy guilt to rue it.

15

20

live, I would but live, I would but live to make my vir - tues known all.