

VII. Fie fie

Fie fie, fie fie, fie fie, what a coil is here, why strive you so to get a Come, come Come, come, come come do you not per-ceive? I am not yet dis-posed to kiss, why strive you so to get a kiss, do, do, yield. I am not yet dis - posed to yield. Stay, stay, do, do, do what you will, do, do, do what you will, you shall be near the stay, stay, stay but a while. Stay, stay, stay but a while. My love will give you d ↔ d.

near, had I beenwil-ling so to be bil-ling you had pre-vai - led long ere leave. This, my de - ni - al Is but a tri - al. If faint de - sire will fly the

d. ↔ d

this, sweet stand a-way, stand a-way, stand a-way let me a-lone, field. Whoope. Look you now, look you now, look you now, I pray be still.

15

or else in faith, or else in faith, in faith I'll get me gone, Nay, then in faith, nay then in faith, in faith do what you will

20

sweet, stand a-way, stand a-way, stand a-way let Whoope, Look you now, look you now look you now, I me a-lone or else in faith, or else in faith, in faith I'll get me gone. pray be still. Nay then in faith, Nay then in faith, in faith do what you will.

25

VIII. Beauty, stand further

Beau - ty stand fur - ther, re - pine not at my bla - ming, Is it not mur - der, to
Is it not bet - ter, to love thy friend in good sort Then to be debt - er for set my heart on fla - ming, Thus hope - less to take bare sight of such a kind-ness name to re - port? If you had the less for this rich mer-cie glo - ry doth tempt me to make my death be - get a sto - ry, Then lend-ing then should I con - fess no thrift were in such a spen-ding. Oh, pi - ty, pi - ty me, pi - ty, pi - ty me, pi - ty, pi - ty me lest some worse thing en - sue it, pi - ty, pi - ty me, pi - ty, pi - ty me, pi - ty, pi - ty me thine gaine shall be thine owne all

My death's true cause, my death's true cause, my death's true cause will I would but live I would but live, I would but live to force thy guilt to rue it. Then pi-ty, pi-ty me, pi-ty, pi-ty me make my vir - tues known all. Oh, pi-ty, pi-ty me, pi-ty, pi-ty me pi-ty, pi-ty me lest some worse thing en - sue it, My death's true pi-ty, pi-ty me, the gaine shall be thine owne all, I would but cause, my death's true cause, my death's true cause will force thy guilt to rue it.

15

20

live, I would but live, I would but live to make my vir - tues known all.

XI. Over these brooks

Cantus

O - ver these
My thoughts im -
Now, in this

brooks trust - ing to ease mine eyes, mine eyes, pri - soned in my se - cret woes, my woes, sand I would diis - charge my mind, my mind mine eyes ev'n great in la - - bour with her tears, my woes, with fla-mie breaths - - do is-sue oft in sound, my mind, and cast from me - - part of my bur - dnous cares

10 I laid my face, I laid my face, my face where - in there lies The sonud to this, The sound to this, strange air no soo - ner goes,
But in the sand But in the sand my tales fore - told I find clus - ters of clouds, clus - ters of clouds which no sun e - ver clears in but that it doth but that it doth with E-choe's force re - bound, and and see there-in, and see there-in how well the wa - ters fares Since

15

20

wat' - ry glass, in wat' - ry glass, my wat' - ry eyes I make me hear, and make me hear the plaints I would re - streams, air, sand, since streams, air, sand mine eyes and ears con -

25

see sor - rows ill eased, sor - rows ill bound Thus out - ward helps, thus out - ward spire What help to quench, what help to 1.

2.

eased where sor - rows poin - ted be, in be.
 helps my in - ward griefs main - tain, And tain quench where each thing blows the fire, Since fire